DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-14, drawn to a health management system and method for managing the health of a user with a portable terminal, classified in class 705, subclass 3.
 - II. Claims 15-37, drawn to a portable terminal with discharge control and discharge control method, classified in class 128, subclass 200.14.
 - III. Claims 38-50, drawn to a health management system and method for managing the health of a user with a medical facility and drugstore terminal, classified in class 709, subclass 204.
 - IV. Claims 51-70, drawn to an inhaler with driving control, classified in class 128, subclass 200.18.
 - V. Claims 71-82, drawn to a prescription determination support system via a memory card, classified in class 235, subclass 380.
 - VI. Claims 83-99, drawn to an inhaler with tank and discharge head, classified in class 128, subclass 200.23.
2. Inventions I-VI are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination I has separate utility such as processing the records of diagnosis or treatment of a patient. Subcombination II has separate utility such as reducing a liquid medicament to minute particles, or producing a diffused spray of such liquid. Subcombination III has separate utility such as a communications system with computer conferencing. Subcombination IV has separate utility such as impinging or controlling the atomized or sprayed fluid via a baffle or valve. Subcombination V has separate utility such as a card-based data records system for prescriptions. Subcombination VI has separate utility such as providing a liquid medicament in minute particles from a pre-pressurized container holding the medicament.

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. A telephone call was made to John Magluyan on 3/20/2006 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

6. The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

7. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
